

Freddie Mac Announces Planned Redisdisclosure of June 2019 Pool Level Delinquency Disclosure

June 12, 2019

Freddie Mac announced that the Freddie Mac Single Family pool level delinquency disclosure published as part of the June 2019 monthly disclosure file release was incomplete. The June disclosure only included delinquency disclosure for pools issued November 2018 and later but should have included the disclosure for all outstanding pools issued before November 2018. Freddie Mac is working with Common Securitization Solutions to regenerate and redisclose the impacted file as soon as possible with a target of releasing the complete files within the next few business days.

The Freddie Mac Credit Risk Transfer (CRT) disclosures for the June 25th remittance are not impacted by this issue.
